My partner and I went for a casual dinner at 7.30pm, we had a booking and the staff greeted us with smiling faces. We picked a seat out in the open and were given a copy of the menu each. We sat and listened to the live busker performing vocals with her guitar. It was a very relaxed atmosphere. The courtyard was filled with families and couples. The Mezz is well equipped to entertain the kiddos.

We ordered a starter plate of chorizo, olives and bread.

And for mains I opted for a beef salad whilst Einar had a seafood pasta. Both were very tasty and a decent sized portion. The evening ended with a coffee and matcha latte.

When it was time to settle the bill, the staff graciously accepted our voucher. There was a function in the other room and that did not affect the wonderful and timely service we had.

The staff were so lovely and prices reasonable with plenty of options on the menu, we will definitely come visit again - with or without little kiddos!! 🤔🤔
